

In Loving Memory

Reiki Master Teacher with
The International Center for Reiki Training

Bryce Ritch Goebel was a woman who lived her life to help others. She was a loving wife, dog mom, sister-in-law, friend, and Reiki Master Teacher and Mentor.

Bryce had a successful career in IT before joining the LRMT program in November 2014. She was driven to help her students, clients, and fellow teachers succeed. She was known for her fire and spunk, and always had a smile on her face. Bryce was always thinking outside the box and was authentic in her communication with everyone.

She was committed to being the most authentic, powerful version of herself. In her own words, "Some days, it's hard, but it's always worth it. Why go to the vibration of fear and hate when I can be in love and gratitude? They keep me feisty!" Bryce transitioned on 12/27/22.
